Sad to hear about Ken's passing. A great guy. Fun to work with but more a father figure and mentor to many. I realize Edra and family will mourn his loss, but hopefully celebrate more a life well lived.

I was 10 or 12 years old and my parents lived in one of the other units. I remember when they were expecting, what I remembered to be their first child. We were all young, and now are advanced in years. Ken was a swell gouy, and treated me with kindness and good humour. My condolences, from an old lifelong
